ANNOUNCEMENTS.
For State Senator.

We are authorized to announce HON. A. S.
BENNETT as a candidate for State Senator from the seventh senatorial district, subject to the action of the Republican party.

For Representative.

We are authorized to announce DR. A. D.
PARK as a candidate for Representative from Ohio county, subject to the action of the Republican party.

At seventy years of age Uncle Joe Cannon will become Speaker of the House, a distinction Mrs. Cannon has enjoyed for well nigh fifty years.

Why not go a step farther here in Ohio county and abolish all civil and criminal laws, and substitute a new law for the better and more humane protection of lopped-pole cats?

If the sale of indulgences in Germany three centuries ago had excited no more popular resentment than the sale of indictments in Ohio county, Martin Luther would not have fathered a revolution.

Those who have observed the able, conscientious administration of justice by Judge Owen for the past twelve years, will regret to see him retire from the bench, and more especially so, because of the possible succession of the very incompetent Mr. Birkhead.

HERB KRUPP, the great German cannon-maker, has made an immense fortune on his inventions of heavy ordinance, but he has gone now, and, unfortunately, he could take neither cannon nor money with him. He will have to begin all anew in his endless home in the Elysian fields.

As a Republican, we are well pleased to see the Democrats hold a primary election next year to nominate candidates for State offices, but as a citizen, whose birthday can occur but once a year, we regret to see the 3rd of May desecrated by a Democratic primary, which will make the Music Hall convention look like thirty cents.

If there is anybody in Kentucky who wants to kill anybody else in Kentucky and has conscientious scruples about being hung or going to the penitentiary, we advise him to allure his victim to Ohio county, do the job, get his certificate of good character and a chromograph from the Ohio Circuit Court and go on his way rejoicing.

The Hartford Herald does Jailor Black a very great injustice, inadvertently, we suppose, this week, by insinnuating that he confined female prisoners in the same cell with men.
Commenting on the inadequacy of the jail, which is timely, it says there should be a separate department for women. In fact, Jailor Black has never, during his term of office, confined a female prisoner in a cell with men.

In this issue of THE REPUBLICAN will be found the announcement of Dr. A. D. Park, of Rockport, for the Republican nomination for Representative. Dr. Park is a well-known Republican whose merits, political and personal, deserve the highest praise and earnest consideration of the Republicans of Ohio county. If nominated, Dr. Park will make a successful race and will serve his county in the Lower House of the General Assembly with credit to himself and to his constituents.

The biggest gun in the world will be floated down the Hudson from the Watervliet arsenal and mounted for coast defense at Sandy Hook next month. It weighs 130 tons without its carriage. It will use 1,000 pounds of powder in sending a 2,370 pound shell 21 miles. It shows the highest development in the manufacture of weapons of modern warfare. What an immense stride from the rude club of primal man!

We took occasion, last week, to call the attention of our readers to the appalling results to popular government which must follow the wholesale buying of voters. We recognized the difficulty of correcting the evil and suggested, as the most available remedy, the education of popular sentiment through the columns of the press. Crediting our neighbor, the Hartford Herald, with good intentions and bad judgment, and with loving its party better than its country, we will deal charitably with it for laughing in church, as it were, by very small referring to a supposed familiarity of ours with corruption methods. As an observing citizen we have seen something, aye, seen too much of it. We regret the Herald could not take a higher view of this ominous evil than to tattle about Republicans being a party to it. We took Catholic grounds in the matter, shifting not all the blame to the Democratic party. Our readers are not fools and we shall not try to fool them. They know that both parties in county, State and National elections collect and disburse corruption funds, that that party spends the most that is able to collect the most, and everybody but fools know it and everybody but knaves acknowledge it.

JOINED THE DIMMYCRATS.

Mr. Thomas C. Park Changes From the Sublime to the Ridiculous.

"EDITOR HERALD: I think there is a stopping place. I have this to say about the Republican party: I now see that my belonging to the Republican party is a mistake. I have made all my life, so from this time on I will be a Democrat. If any one doesn't think me sincere, time will tell."
THOMAS C. PARK.

"Nov. 25, 1902 Clear Run, Ky."

Mr. Thomas C. Park, of the Clear Run country, has "joined the Dimmycrats," and he advertises the fact, as above, in the Hartford Herald. It is extremely witty, as he announces his change in a very few words. He doesn't offer any reason for his change of political garments, but just says:
"I'm genuine over and I'm in earnest about it."

We are not devoting this space to bawling the loss of Mr. Park, however, we don't like to see a good boy go wrong, but we are just filling our mission of giving our readers the news. Young Park is a very nice boy, but he is not personally a man of such importance that the public would be deeply interested in his political whims, but the very fact of a Republican "joining the Dimmycrats" in Ohio county, is so unusual that it is really sensational.

We have never written a line bragging on ourself as a scooper, but we know our readers will credit us with practical bearing will it have on the duties or success of life?

All certainly must know the importance of understanding references to authors and works of bygone ages, and must know that some acquaintance with them is of great value in acquiring a thorough knowledge of our own language, and a correct estimate of our own literature. I do not in this connection dwell on the love of the beautiful, the thirst for knowledge, that should spring up and dwell in every youthful breast. Surely the gems which sparkle in the casket of the "Iliad," "Odyssey," "Aeneid" and the "Merchant of Venice" ought to attract the gaze and call forth the admiration of every youth in our land.
J. W. MEADOR.

People who use "liver pills" ought to try the well known Chamberlain's debilitating, weakening effect. They are far superior to the ordinary pill.

Rev. Irl Hicks' 1903 Almanac.

To say that this splendid work of science and art is finer and better than ever, is stating it mildly. The demand for it is far beyond all previous years. To say that such results, reaching through thirty years, are not based upon sound sense and method-ness, is an insult to the intelligence of millions. Prof. Hicks, through this great Almanac, and his famous family and scientific journal, Word and Works, is doing a work for the whole people not approached by any other mass or publication. A fair test will prove this to any reasonable person. Added to the most luminous course in astronomy for 1903 forecasts of storms and weather are given, as never before, for every day in the year, all charmingly illustrated with nearly two hundred engravings. The price of single Almanac, including postage and mailing, is thirty cents.
Word and Works with the Almanac is $1.00 a year. Write to Word and Works Publishing Co., 2201 Locust Street, St. Louis, Mo., and prove to yourself their great value.

WYMAN.

Mr. Editor: Your timely warning in regard to political corruption in Kentucky, last week, was to the point, and should be regarded by all right thinking people.

We have a large number of voters in McLean county who are easily influenced by money, strong drink, bad music or excitement. This vote is composed of both white and black.
They will participate in a Republican convention and then vote for the Democratic nominee. They will hurry for one candidate and vote for the other. They hold the balance of power and can elect or defeat any man they please.

Many ignorant blacks suffered to be let out of town on last election day and kept drunk all day. Your remedy, to educate such creatures, is, indeed, an uphill business, from the fact they cannot and will not read, or even listen to sensible advice. I have thought that an educational pre-requisite might be required of each voter, with good results.

Mrs. Sue Landrum, wife of Judge Ben F. Landrum, died at her home in Calhoun Sunday of typhoid fever.

Mrs. Landrum was a most excellent lady and will be greatly missed by the people of Calhoun. She was the mother-in-law of Prof. Chas. H.
Ellis, principal of Calhoun College.

And what of Socrates, the greatest philosopher of antiquity? Who can fail to be benefited by perusal of his philosophy when we find that our author was born, bred and resided in a country, believing in a plurality of Gods, the extinction of man in every form with death, and where virtue had no reward save in this life, yet, notwithstanding, he reasoned from Nature up to one Supreme being, the immortality of the soul, and the reward for a well spent life after death, and this without any aid from the sacred writings of the Jews? A perusal of his writings will strengthen our often waning faith in the grandest of all literary productions enclosed in the hills of the Holy Bible, for if Socrates could, from Nature and strength of intellect, discover the true God and man's duty and relation to him, it must be true that God is, and a reward of the deeds done in the body, since the scriptures, with the super-added advent of The Babe of Bethlehem, since the day of the philosopher bears out his doctrine, and establishes its truth. I know that the last lines are rather a digression from the line I had marked out, but my earnestness on this subject must be my apology.

If I could, I would have every lover of learning, to profit by the God given genius and stupendous labors of those renowned authors and actors, who have so splendidly illuminated the pages of the world's progress in letters.

It may be asked why I so earnestly insist on the study of literature, a something I have partially answered in the body of this writing, or what practical bearing will it have on the
duties or success of life?

tance of understanding references to

DEMOCRATIC WAR

State Central Committee calls State Primary and is Enjoined.

The Final Act of Democratic Rascality that will Disrupt the Party and Assure Republican Ascendancy in Kentucky.

The Democratic State Central Committee met at Frankfort Tuesday and called State Primary Convention for May 3, 1903, to nominate candidates for State offices next year. Thirty minutes after the order was made, calling the State primary, a member of the committee, more fond of his party than of the Goebel element of it, filed a suit enjoining the holding of a State Primary election.

The petition in the injunction suit set forth the facts that a State Primary election would cost $36,000 and that the State Central Committee had no authority to assess and collect from the candidates, for State offices, the money necessary to defray the expenses of the primary. The injunction suit was brought in tyrant Cantjill's court, and he being a rank Goebelite, will, of course, dismiss the injunction.

The Goebel element of the party has fixed a slate with Beckham at the head of it, and will put up the money for the primary and freeze out the poor Democratic candidates.

Rockport, Ky., EDITOR REPUBLICAN:
AN: Rockport has grown in prosperity to such an extent, during her latter days, that she, now, can announce two candidates for Representative of this county. Both are full-fledged Republicans, subject to the action of the Republican party.

The first of the two to make the announcement, was Dr. A. D. Park, one of Rockport's best citizens, and formerly of Clinton. The doctor has made this place his home for the past two years, and has made many warm friends who will take pleasure in assisting him for the nomination at the general election.

Next comes the announcement of Mr. Geo. M. Maddox, who is too well known in this county, to require any newspaper reputation. He has been a life long Republican, and one that has always worked for the benefit of his party and fellow-citizens. J. R.

The Federal Court at Owensboro Tuesday rewarded John Embury, of Grayson county, with checks for board and lodging for five years for raising a $1 silver certificate to a $20. John did not appear especially pleased at being relieved of the necessity of looking out for his own hash, but accepted Uncle Sam's generosity with the best grace possible. We understand John has done things before.

Mr. Andrew Jackson Jewel, of Leitchfield, was before Judge Evans' court at Owensboro Tuesday, charged with retailing liquor without paying the government tax. Mr. Jewel pleaded nay and the court graded him 100 on veracity, and he was as happy as a June bug until an officious grand jury entered an order directing him to appear for another examination at the next term of the Federal Court.

FREE PUBLIC LIBRARY

At Knottsville, Daviess County, Was Dedicated Sunday.

The little town of Knottsville, Daviess county, is the smallest town in Kentucky to establish a free public library, and the only town in the State with an absolutely non-sectarian free public library.

The Knottsville library contains 1,000 volumes and occupies a pretty two-story brick building and everything is paid for.

The dedication services Sunday were very interesting. Two Catholic priests and two protestant preachers officiated, and a spirit of brotherly love and fraternal feeling prevailed throughout.

The principal address was delivered by Captain W. T. Ellis, of Owensboro, who had generously given the library 500 volumes. Capt. Ellis, the now well-known lawyer and statesman, was born sixty years ago in a log cabin near the site of the new library building and got his elementary education in a little log school house nearby. Capt. Ellis' dedicatory address was learned, eloquent and interesting, and warmly received by the large concourse of people who had assembled for the occasion.

Circuit Court adjourned yesterday after being in session for ten days. There was only one jury empanelled during the entire term, and that was the jury to try Netter Gilstrap for murder, and it returned a verdict of not guilty, late Saturday evening.

Com'th. vs. John Porter, pleaded guilty, and was fined $100.

Com'th. vs. Squid Williams &c., were fined $50 each.

The grand jury adjourned yesterday after completing its work. Not many indictments were returned.

Judge Owen, who was absent during the first week of court, came in Monday morning.

All the civil docket was continued yesterday, and Judge Owen returned to his home in Owensboro.

The First Snow.

The snow storm Wednesday was a total surprise, so suddenly did it come. Early in the morning rain was falling in a steady drizzle and the weather was considerably warmer.

The storm came all at once. There was none of the trifling and apparent indecisions that usually marks the first snow storm of the year. This one came with a rush and ushered sturdy old winter in with great ado.

GILSTRAP ACQUITTED

The Jury Reached a Verdict With Only One Ballot.

The case of Netter Gilstrap, charged with the murder of Thomas Burton, at Cromwell, last March, was heard in Circuit Court, here, last week, and resulted in a verdict of acquittal.

The scene in the court room when the verdict was announced was perhaps the most affecting ever witnessed here. Gilstrap's wife and four children were present when the foreman of the jury solemnly pronounced the verdict "not guilty," and they rushed upon him with hysterical joy. For the moment all consciousness of the presence of spectators was lost upon the minds of the exulting wife and children, and they embraced the now free husband and father with gushing tears and cries of joy. Many another eye in the court room shed sympathetic tears.

The verdict of the jury, whether a just one or not, was a great surprise to the public. At least, up till the beginning of the trial, the public was expecting a rather vigorous punishment, but as the Commonwealth made no special effort to prosecute the accused, the verdict was not a great surprise to those who had heard the evidence in the case.

Kicked by a Horse.

Deputy Sheriff J. H. Roberts, of Fordsville, was kicked by a horse at Fordsville, about two weeks ago. He was struck just above the right eye. Mr. Roberts was knocked unconscious at the time, but after a few moments was able to go about again, but a few days later the wound gave him serious trouble and he has been confined to the house ever since. He was thought to be some better yesterday.

BOATNER & SCHLEITZBAUM

The Alleged Express Robbers Get Continuance Till March Term.

J. H. Boatner and A. B. Schleitzbaum, who are in prison here, charged with attempting to defraud the American Express Company of $28,000, were brought out for trial before the court Wednesday, but on account of the absence of certain witnesses, the cases were continued until the March term of court.

The charge of attempting to defraud the Express Company was reduced to a misdemeanor and will be heard later in the County Court.

Schleitzbaum is charged also with embezzling $80 of the funds of the Texas railroad, and Boatner is charged with being an accomplice of Schleitzbaum in the matter of embezzlement and this charge was continued until the March term of court.

The bonds of each, were reduced from $30,000 to $2,500.

A Violent Attack of Croup Cured.

"Last winter an infant child of mine had croup in a violent form," says Elder John W. Rogers, a Christian Evangelist, of Pileney, Mo. "I gave her a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and in a short time all danger was past and the child recovered." This remedy not only cures croup, but when given as soon as the first symptoms appear, will prevent the attack. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by all druggists.

An Ancient Foe

To health and happiness is Scrofula—as ugly as ever since time immemorial. It causes blemishes in the neck, disfigures the skin, inflames the mucous membrane, wastes the muscles, weakens the bones, reduces the power of resistance to disease and the capacity for recovery, and develops into consumption.

"A bunch appeared on the left side of my neck. It caused great pain, was lanced, and became a running sore. I went into a general decline. I was persuaded to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and when I had taken six bottles my neck was healed, and I have never had any trouble of the kind since." Mrs. E. T. Snyder, Troy, Ohio.

TERRIBLE SLAUGHTER

Blood Flowed Freely in Forty-Five States Wednesday.

Wednesday was the most sanguinary day of the year in the United States. The deaths of that day approached the appalling total of nearly a million. Full many a goblet, who had proudly gobbled will gobble no more. Surely Thanksgiving Day sounds like a misnomer to the proud American bird.

ANNUAL

Income of John D. Rockefeller.

Placed By Friends at One Hundred Millions Of Dollars.

Whole Safe Filled With Securities That He and His Secretaries Only Know Of.

New York, Nov. 22.—The News publishes the following. John D. Rockefeller is reputed to be the richest man in the world, and from incomplete figures, gathered from many sources, and with allowances made for exaggerations, there is every reason to believe that this contention is true.

Mr. Rockefeller's income is said by his friends to be $100,000,000 a year. The figures that have been gathered shows an income of about $67,332,000. As Mr. Rockefeller is very secretive about his own affairs it is hard to get any more than an estimate of his holdings.

For instance, it was discovered only by accident that his $3,000 shares of preferred stock of the United States Steel Corporation were carried in the name of one of his private secretaries. Many of the companies in the list given are controlled by Mr. Rockefeller, the Standard Oil absolutely, Mr. Rockefeller owning $40,000,000 of the $101,000,000 of the stock of the company. In the last three years from this one company he has received in dividends $55,000,000.

Mr. Rockefeller is known to hold $5,000,000 of the securities of the New York Central, and his holdings in this company have led to the report that he was strong enough to force the Vanderbilts to cease their fight to keep the Washburn, the Goulds' leading property, out of the Eastern railroad field.

Of the companies mentioned in the list above Mr. Rockefeller controls absolutely the M. & K. T. road, the St. Paul, Amalgamated Copper, Anaconda Copper, American Lined, Brooklyn Union Gas and Union Pacific. In addition he is a holder of stock in nearly every bank in New York. Either he or his brother or son, or James Stillman, his right-hand man, is a director in many of them, as for instance, the National City, Lincoln National, United States Trust, Produce Exchange Trust and others.

Mr. Rockefeller is said to have a whole safe full of mining securities that he and his private secretaries only know of. With as much known as is shown in the list here given it is easy to see that his income may well exceed the $100,000,000 limit placed on it by his friends and associates.

Very Scarce. As has been predicted, hunters have found since the hunting season has opened birds to be even scarcer than was at first indicated and some of the most successful and enthusiastic local sportsmen have, after the first few days' trial given it up that the bird season is a failure this year and that the effort required in hunting out the few scattered coveys in this locality is not paid by the results. Various causes are held as responsible for the absence of the usual number of quails this season, the principal one being the heavy sleet and severe weather of last winter, which it is argued killed out many of the old birds. It is a pity that the real sportsmen of the state cannot succeed in inducing the legislature to pass some kind of game law to more effectively protect the quail, which is about the only game bird left in Kentucky and which is under the present conditions, rapidly becoming exterminated.

The Chattanooga Advertising.

The Chattanooga Medicine Company with laboratories and general offices at Chattanooga, Tennessee, and branch houses at St. Louis, Mo., and San Francisco, Cal., has become one of the largest proprietary medicine concerns in the world. In the growth of this great business two factors have been dominant: The merit of its products—Wine of Cardui and Theodor's Black-Draught—has been widely recognized and the original advertising methods adopted have excited great comment. The publicity for these medicines does not consist of the catch phrase and extravagant statement, too often employed in advertising to-day, but instead the plain story of experience with the medicines given in the plain language of the people themselves. The following letter is a fair sample of the thousands of Wine of Cardui testimonials published during the past twenty years:

2608 Eastern Avenue.

Cincinnati, O., May 20, 1902.

I consider Wine of Cardui a most excellent woman's remedy. It is certainly a specific as a tonic and regulator. For eight years I suffered with female trouble. I had intense pain in the back and head, leaving me so weak that I was unable to stand at times. Medicine did not seem to help me, but after all remedies had failed me Wine of Cardui proved my one great, true friend. What a relief I experienced! It came only a few days after I started taking it. I used it faithfully for four months and gradually grew stronger and better. I am now regular to the day and for the past two years have enjoyed blessed good health. I certainly wish every sick and suffering woman could know of your blessed medicine, how much pain and suffering it would prevent, and what a difference it would make in thousands of homes where there is sickness and sorrow to-day, if they had Wine of Cardui it would bring relief and joy instead.

MARGARET GREENMYRE.

THIS REMEDY IS SURE TO GIVE Satisfaction.

ELY'S CREAM BALM. For Cuts, Bruises, Burns, Sprains, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Headache, Toothache, Stomachache, Backache, Pain in the Limbs, etc. It is absorbed immediately and gives relief in a few minutes. It is the best remedy for all the above ailments. It is sold in small bottles for 10 cents each. It is sold in large bottles for 25 cents each. It is sold in all drug stores.

Higher Wages for Trainmen.

Little Rock, Ark., Nov. 22.—At a conference in this city between General Manager William Cotter, of the St. Louis, Iron Mountain and Southern railroad, and committee representing the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, the former granted an increase of three and four cents per hour in the pay of switchmen employed by that railroad in Little Rock.

The Agricultural Experiment Station of the University of Illinois is making experiments and inquiry relative to the detasselling of corn. It has been claimed that when the stalks of corn are detasselled, the yield will be considerably increased and the experiments are along the line of learning the exact conditions relative to this theory. This is a question that is of importance to the farmers of the country and these experiments will be watched closely.

Quick Inference. Judge—He has often declared that the lot of the poor is to be envied and that poverty is often a blessing. Fudge—What! Is he as rich as all that?—Baltimore Herald.

Old Citizen Dead. Mt. Olivet, Ky., Nov. 24.—Mrs. John McGurie, one of the oldest citizens of this county, is dead, at the age of ninety.

Revival Stopped. Auburn, Ky., Nov. 24.—The projected meeting in progress at the Cumberland Presbyterian church has been abandoned, owing to the recent scare of smallpox.

Look at the Date. On your label and you can readily calculate how much you are owing on your subscription. It may seem a very small item to each one in arrears, but the sum total amounts to a considerable sum, and we need it in our business. Don't put it off, but pay it.

THIS AND THAT.

After taking up a collection of $940 to finish paying for a church down in a valley town, the choir arose and sang "Jesus Paid It All," whereupon some irreverent but long-suffering money changer in the temple got up, suggested if they felt that way about it, the minister might make a light draft on the same place for his salary.

Honor the dear old mother. Time has scattered snowflakes on her hair and deep furrows on her cheeks, but she is sweet and beautiful now. Her lips are this and sunken, but they are the sweetest lips in the world. Her eye is dim yet it glows with a soft radiance that never fades. Yes she is a dear old mother. The sands of life are nearly run out, but feebly as she is, she will go farther and reach down lower for you than any other person on earth. You cannot enter a prison whose bars will keep her out. You can never mount a scaffold too high for her to reach that she may bless you, in evidence of her deathless love. When the world shall despise and forsake you—when it leaves you by the wayside to die unnoticed—the dear old mother will gather you in her feeble arms and carry you home and tell you all your virtues, until you almost forget that your soul is disgraced by vice. Love her tenderly and cheer her last years with joy.

An exchange tells of a boy who grew up to manhood without seeing a woman. But in the course of events he saw one of the angelic creatures. "What is that father?" asked the young man. "That my son, is a woman," said the father, and the very next words the young man uttered were: "Father, I want one of them things."

Artistic Monuments

COST NO MORE THAN PLAIN ONES IN

White Bronze.

Marble is entirely out of date. Granite soon gets moss-grown, discolored, requires constant expense and care, and eventually crumbles back to Mother Earth. Besides, it is very expensive. White Bronze is strictly everlasting. It cannot crumble with the action of frost. Moss-growth is an impossibility. It is more artistic than any stone. Then why not investigate? It has been adopted for nearly one hundred public monuments and by thousands of delighted customers in all parts of the country. It has been on the market over 25 years and is an established success. Many granite dealers have bought White Bronze for their own burial plots. We have hundreds of beautiful designs of all grades of work, and want to have you see them if you are interested in a monument, headstone, marker or grave-cover. On receipt of a postal card will be pleased to call with designs and sample of White Bronze.

Yours truly,
D. J. RHODES, Beaver Dam, Ky.
